4. Cookies

A cookie is a small piece of data that a website can store on your computer. We may use cookies on our Website for the purposes of (i) enabling or facilitating certain features and functions of our Website in the provision of our online services to you, or (ii) tracking the use of links between our Website and the websites of our partners or affiliates. You may choose to configure your internet browser settings to manage or restrict the use of cookies, but this may result in delay or loss of functionality in the use of our Website.

5. Third Parties

We may also occasionally include or offer third party products, services or links on our Website. Each of these third parties/their sites has its own separate and independent privacy policy. We are not responsible for any such third parties, the content and activities of their sites, or any Personal Data that you may provide to them.

6. Protection of Personal Data

We take all reasonable precautions, including administrative, technical and physical measures, to safeguard your Personal Data against accidental loss, theft, misuse, unlawful processing and damage as well as against unauthorised or accidental access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

7. Access to, correction of and retention of Personal Data

7.1. Generally, you can keep your Personal Data accurate, complete and up to date by updating your details in your Account with us if you are a subscriber, or by contacting us as described at the beginning of this Privacy Policy.

7.2. We will retain your Personal Data only for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.

8. General

8.1. If you wish to access, verify, correct, withdraw your consent or communicate with us on any matter relating to your Personal Data, please contact us as described at the beginning of this Privacy Policy.

8.2. If you withdraw your consent to any or all use of your Personal Data, any existing contractual relationships that we have with you may be affected, including our not being able to continue providing our Products or Services to you or your being in breach of your contractual obligations to us. In any such event, our legal rights and remedies are expressly reserved.

8.3. This Privacy Policy is applicable to Singapore and Malaysia. We reserve the right to add to, revise or delete any part or all of this Privacy Policy as permitted under the applicable laws of these jurisdictions.
